Mr. Howland Wood,

Curator, American Numismatic Museum,

156th Street and Broadway, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Wood:

I find that the Cunningham book on Indian coins is in the Columbia library, but your copy is so convenient, with its loose pages for studying the coins while reading the descriptions that I am going to keep it a week or two longer, until at least Miss Prime has a chance at it. I expect her on Tuesday afternoon. She did not come last Thursday. It seems that she was obliged to make another engagement for Thursday afternoon.

The Cunningham book can be returned immediately, you understand; should you have use expected me for it. Otherwise, I may keep it at Columbia for two weeks longer.

Again with thanks,

Yours sincerely,

Adelaide Rudolph.

Dear Madam:

As I will have occasion in about a week to look for the Kangra coins, would it be asking too much if you could bring this up to the Society in the course of a few days.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Miss K.—

It has just this minute come to me
the last word in that Baroda inscription
is बहादुर Bahādur,
a title of Arabic origin (vide Ar. Lexicons) but much used in present day
India by high military Chiefs; but whether bestowed or hereditary I do not know. L. C. G. G.
